What's New

New Partner Confirmed: Okedongmu Children in Korea (OKCK)

We are delighted to welcome Okedongmu Children in Korea as a partner of the Youth Peace Summit. Based in Seoul, OKCK is a peacebuilding NGO working towards a peaceful future for children on the Korean Peninsula and beyond. Through its work, the organization promotes dialogue, cooperation, and opportunities for young people to contribute to a more peaceful world. We are excited to bring perspectives from East Asia into the summit and strengthen our growing international network of organizations committed to peacebuilding and youth engagement.

Behind the Scenes

Youth Peace Summit Team Meeting

On Saturday, 23 May, the Youth Peace Summit team gathered at The Blue Parrot for the final large team meeting before the summit takes place from 17–19 June 2026. Bringing together volunteers from across different teams, the meeting was an important opportunity to review the latest developments, discuss urgent priorities, and ensure that all preparations are on track for welcoming 150 participants to The Hague.

While much of the discussion focused on the practical preparations for this year's summit, the team also took time to look ahead. During a brainstorming session, volunteers explored ideas for the future of the Youth Peace Summit and how the initiative can continue to grow as a platform for youth-led peacebuilding in the years to come.

With the summit now just around the corner, the energy, dedication, and enthusiasm of the team left everyone feeling excited for what is to come

In the Spotlight - Volunteer

Ilya | Mentorship Coordinator

I'm Ilya and as a mentor of mentors at the Youth Peace Summit, I guide young leaders in transforming bold ideas into real-world impact. With a background in human rights and environmental activism, I've worked across borders to support grassroots movements, international cooperation, and civic resilience. I believe in empowering emerging changemakers to lead with empathy, strategy, and a deep commitment to justice, because peace is something we build together.
